

ALUMNI SCHOLARSHIP

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF AWARD – 2010

1. GENERAL

1.1 Availability

Each year the ANU College of Business and Economics may award one (1) scholarship for Australian students (hereafter called 'the scholar') who are Alumni of the ANU College of Business and Economics and who are eligible for an offer of admission to a Graduate Diploma or Master program offered by the ANU College of Business and Economics, and are seeking admission for the first time. The scholarship is competitive, and is based on academic merit.

1.2 Scholarship

The ANU College of Business and Economics reserves the right to make no award in a given year, to vary the number of awards or to make an award/s at other times in exceptional circumstances. The College reserves the right to revise the award from time to time.

1.3 Eligibility

- Australian or New Zealand Citizens or holders of an Australian Permanent Resident visa are eligible to be considered (International applicants are not eligible).
- Applicants must have completed a bachelor degree in the ANU College of Business and Economics and achieved at least a 75% average over the last two (2) years of study (graduates of postgraduate programs are not eligible).
- Applicants must have at least one (1) year of full-time professional work experience achieved after completion of their bachelor degree (evidence to be supplied).
- The applicant must be offered admission to a Graduate Diploma or Master program offered by the ANU College of Business and Economics.

1.4 Selection

The recipient will be selected from applicants who are eligible to be considered in accordance with Clause 1.3 above.

1.5 Candidature

The scholar will be required to be enrolled either full time or part time in a Graduate Diploma or Master program offered by the ANU College of Business and Economics in the year of the award.

Requests to vary program choice within the scholar's first semester of study (before the relevant census date) may be considered by the Dean of the College (or nominee).

The scholarship is not renewable.

1.6 Deferral

Successful applicants are expected to take up their award offer in the semester for which it is offered. The scholarship may not be deferred.

1.7 University Regulations

A scholar is subject to The Australian National University Act 1991 as amended, and to the Statutes, Rules, Regulations and Resolutions of the University.

1.8 Concurrent holding of other Awards/Scholarships

A scholar must obtain permission from the Dean of the College (or nominee) to hold any other type of award or scholarship concurrently with an ANU College of Business and Economics Alumni Scholarship. If the scholar fails to notify the College of their tenure of another award or scholarship the Dean of the ANU College of Business and Economics (or nominee) may determine that the ANU College of Business and Economics Alumni Scholarship shall be refunded by the Scholar to the College.

1.9 Publicity

It is anticipated that the ANU College of Business and Economics Alumni Scholarship recipient may be requested to participate in publicity of the award scheme from time-to-time. A scholar may be contacted for an interview and photograph. The ANU College of Business and Economics will publicise the ANU College of Business and Economics Alumni Scholarship by publishing the name of the scholar. Arrangements for publicity will be made through the ANU College of Business and Economics.

1.10 Taxation Implications

It is the scholar's responsibility to determine the taxation implications of the scholarship, if any, which apply to his/her individual circumstances.

2. TENURE

2.1 Commencement

The award will be effective after the census date of the first teaching period in which the scholar is enrolled.

2.2 Duration and Performance

The ANU College of Business and Economics Alumni Scholarship is payable by means of a fee waiver for up to one (1) full-time year of the nominated program, or part-time equivalent.

The scholar is expected to achieve an average of at least 70% across the first 50% of the tenure of the scholarship.

2.3 Attendance

A scholar is expected to be in attendance at the University at the commencement of the teaching period and to remain enrolled during the University teaching periods or semesters. Absences from the University through illness or for any other reason must be approved by the Dean of the College (or nominee).

2.4 Withdrawal From Program

If the scholar withdraws from the program in which they are enrolled the Dean of the ANU College of Business and Economics (or nominee) may determine that the award shall be refunded by the scholar to the College on a pro-rata basis as of the date of withdrawal.

2.5 Termination

The University may terminate an Alumni Scholarship award at any time and at the University's sole discretion if the conduct of the participant is deemed to be unsatisfactory.

3. VALUE

3.1 Scholarship

The ANU College of Business and Economics Alumni Scholarship will provide a tuition fee waiver for the equivalent of a standard full year (or part-time equivalent) of a Master or Graduate Diploma program offered by the ANU College of Business and Economics.

This will take the form of a fee waiver for the scholar for each teaching period of enrolment up to the completion of one full year of study (or part time equivalent).

3.2 Other Costs

The scholar is responsible for the costs of books, study materials, accommodation, and all other costs of study.

3.3 Employment

The scholarship does not carry any commitment by the University for future employment.

4 ACCOMMODATION

It is the scholar's responsibility to obtain residential accommodation. Information on student accommodation and application forms are available from the University Accommodation Services. Information may be found on the Web at: www.accommodation.anu.edu.au
