

THE AUSTRALIAN NATIONAL UNIVERSITY
ANU COLLEGE OF BUSINESS AND ECONOMICS
UNDERGRADUATE MERIT AWARDS

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF AWARD – 2009

1. GENERAL

1.1 Availability

Each year the ANU College of Business and Economics may award up to twenty (20) Undergraduate Merit Awards for Australian and international students (hereafter called 'the scholar') who are applying for admission to the University for the first time. The awards are highly competitive.

The awards will be offered in first semester only, as defined in the University Calendar.

1.2 Award

The ANU College of Business and Economics reserves the right to make no awards in a given year, to vary the number of awards or to make an award/s at other times in exceptional circumstances. The College reserves the right to revise the awards from time to time.

1.3 Eligibility

- Australian and overseas students are eligible to apply.
- Applicants must have completed a Year 12 qualification in Australia at an Australian High School.
- Applicants must apply to ANU through UAC or VTAC and have an approved UAI or ENTER score. Direct applicants are not eligible.
- Students must have a minimum UAI of 95.
- Students must be entering university for the first time. Students transferring from other universities are not eligible.

1.4 Selection

The selection committee will make its recommendation for the award based on academic merit. Recipients will be selected from applicants who are eligible to be considered in accordance with Clause 1.3 above. Students will be ranked according to their UAI /ENTER score. Unadjusted scores will be used for the purposes of ranking. UAC equivalency tables will be used for comparison of scores.

1.5 Candidature

A scholar will be required to enrol in a single degree or combined degree programs offered to undergraduate students by the ANU College of Business and Economics in the year of the award. Requests to vary program choice within the scholar's first semester of study (before the relevant census date) will be considered by the Dean of the College.

The award is payable one time only and is not renewable.

1.6 Deferral

Successful applicants are normally expected to take up their award offer in the semester for which it was offered. Subject to College approval the award may be deferred for only one semester.

1.7 University Regulations

A scholar is subject to The Australian National University Act 1991 as amended, and to the Statutes, Rules, Regulations and Resolutions of the University.

1.8 Concurrent holding of other Awards/Awards

The award will not be tenable with any of the following:

- an Australian Government award of equal or greater value,
- any academic award or scholarship offered by ANU of equal or greater value,
- sponsorship by any organisation of equal or greater value.

A scholar must obtain permission from the Dean of the College to hold any other type of award or award concurrently with an ANU College of Business and Economics Undergraduate Merit Award. If the scholar fails to notify the College of their tenure of another award or scholarship the Dean of the ANU College of Business and Economics may determine that the ANU College of Business and Economics Undergraduate Merit Award shall be refunded by the scholar to the College.

1.9 Publicity

It is anticipated that ANU College of Business and Economics Undergraduate Merit Award recipients may be requested to participate in publicity of the award scheme from time to time. This may include publicity in the country of residence or of schooling. A scholar may be contacted for an interview and photograph. The ANU College of Business and Economics will publicise the Undergraduate Merit Award by publishing the names of the Scholars. Arrangements for publicity will be made through the ANU College of Business and Economics.

1.10 Taxation Implications

It is the scholar's responsibility to determine the taxation implications of the award, if any, which apply to his/her individual circumstances.

2. TENURE

2.1 Commencement

The award will be payable after 31 March 2009 (the census date).

2.2 Duration

The Undergraduate Merit Award is a single award payable one time only to each scholar.

2.3 Attendance

A scholar is expected to be in attendance at the University at the commencement of the teaching period and to remain in full-time enrolment during the University teaching periods or semesters. Absences from the University through illness or for any other reason must be approved by the Dean of the College.

2.4 Withdrawal From Program

If the scholar withdraws from their degree program the Dean of the ANU College of Business and Economics may determine that the award shall be refunded by the scholar to the College on a pro-rata basis as at the date of withdrawal.

3. VALUE

3.1 Award
