BUSN3002

Auditing

This course is primarily focused on the external audit of corporate financial statements while also covering other assurance services, professional ethics, and legal liabilities. The lectures are structured to correspond with auditing process in theory and practice, and inevitably integrate Australian and International Auditing Standards.

The majority of the lectures deal with the various activities undertaken by external auditors. The main stages of the audit process are addressed including risk analysis in auditing, audit planning and documentation, fraud auditing, gathering and evaluating audit evidence (including performance of tests of controls and substantive audit procedures) and the formation of the audit opinion. Other topics, including auditors' legal responsibilities, audit quality and ethics, and other assurance services, are also dealt with as special topics.

The lectures mainly deal with the concepts underlying the methodology, while the cases and tutorial assignments are used to demonstrate how the methodology is applied in practical situations.

COURSE OVERVIEW

Learning Outcomes

Upon successful completion of the requirements for this course, students will be able to:

1. Discuss the need for an independent or external audit and describe briefly the development of the role of the assurance provider in modern business society.

2. Explain the regulatory environment in which the external auditor operates (including relevant sections of the Corporations Act 2001 and the auditing standards issued by the Australian Auditing and Assurance Standards Board (AUASB) as well as the standards issued by the Australia Professional Ethical Standards Board) and apply those rules, standards and pronouncements to the conduct of a financial report audit and other assurance engagements;

3. Describe the quality control procedures necessary to ensure that a competent assurance engagement is performed, and apply professional ethics including Code of Conduct to specific scenarios;

4. Understand the financial report audit process, beginning with accepting clients, followed by understanding the client, evaluating business risk and assessing inherent risk, performing tests of controls to assess control risk and substantive tests to reduce detection risk, considering subsequent events and evaluating evidence gathered, ending in the formation of audit opinion and communication of the results to the client;

5. Describe the various levels of persuasiveness of different types of audit evidence and explain the broad principles of audit sampling techniques;

6. For major transaction types and account balances, identify appropriate assertions at risk and apply appropriate audit procedures to test the assertions identified;

7. Understand auditors' legal liabilities, and be able to apply case law in making a judgment whether auditors might be liable to certain parties;

8. Describe other assurance and non-assurance services provided by the auditing and assurance profession, and, for assurance services, understand the level of assurance provided.

9. In addition, the course aims to develop students’ cognitive skills (especially analytical, appreciative, and communication skills).

ASSESSMENT REQUIREMENTS

The ANU is using Turnitin to enhance student citation and referencing techniques, and to assess assignment submissions as a component of the University's approach to managing Academic Integrity. For additional information regarding Turnitin please visit the ANU Online website.

Students may choose not to submit assessment items through Turnitin. In this instance you will be required to submit, alongside the assessment item itself, copies of all references included in the assessment item.

Any student identified, either during the current semester or in retrospect, as having used ghost writing services will be investigated under the University's Academic Misconduct Rule.

Assessment Tasks

Participation

Students are encouraged to participate in the discussions at the lectures and tutorials. Although the participation will not be assessed, it will help you to achieve better understanding and performance overall.

Assessment Task 1: Tutorial Assignment

Details of task:

Tutorials will comprise guided individual and group activity directed at discussing possible solutions to pre-assigned questions. Printed solutions will not be available from tutors – the feedback on problems will be provided within the classroom. Due to time constraints, tutorial problems may not all be fully discussed in tutorials. Students are encouraged to come to the consultations to discuss any questions further if it is not clear.

It is expected that students will attend ALL lectures and tutorials scheduled for the subject. As part of your assessment, on FOUR (4) occasions during the semester the tutorial assignments will be collected and marked by your tutors. These weeks will be selected at random.

Tutorials commence in Week 2.

Assessment Task 2: Learning Journal

Details of task:

Assignment submission

Online Submission: Assignments are submitted using Turnitin in the course Wattle site. You will be required to electronically sign a declaration as part of the submission of your assignment. Please keep a copy of the assignment for your records.

Hard Copy Submission: Assignment submission is through the Assignment Box located at the Research School of Accounting office. The assignment is due at 4pm on 10 October. All assignments received after the due time will incur penalties (see below for details). Assignments must include the cover sheet available on wattle. Please keep a copy of tasks completed for your records.
Extensions and penalties

Extensions and late submission of assessment pieces are covered by the Student Assessment (Coursework) Policy and Procedure.

The Course Convener may grant extensions for assessment pieces that are not examinations or take-home examinations. If you need an extension, you must request it in writing on or before the due date. If you have documented and appropriate medical evidence that demonstrates you were not able to request an extension on or before the due date, you may be able to request it after the due date.

Late submission of assessment tasks without an extension are penalised at the rate of 5% of the possible marks available per working day or part thereof. Late submission of assessment tasks is not accepted after 10 working days after the due date, or on or after the date specified in the course outline for the return of the assessment item.

Returning assignments

The assignments will be returned within two weeks after the due dates (details on how to collect your marked assignments will be on Wattle). You will need to bring your student ID to collect your assignment.

RESUBMISSION OF ASSIGNMENTS

No resubmission of any assignment is permitted.

REFERENCING REQUIREMENTS

The source of information used and the extent to which the work of others has been utilised need to be acknowledged following the guide for referencing stated in the assignments.

EXAMINATIONS

Apart from above assessments (1-4), there will be a final examination as indicated in the assessment task 5. The final examination will be a three hour closed book exam. Further details will be provided during final lectures. All course learning outcomes are examinable in the final examination. Please note: you will need to pass both the final exam and overall to pass the course.

Scaling

Your final mark for the course will be based on the raw marks allocated for each of your assessment items. However, your final mark may not be the same number as produced by that formula, as marks may be scaled. Any scaling applied will preserve the rank order of raw marks (i.e. if your raw mark exceeds that of another student, then your scaled mark will exceed the scaled mark of that student), and may be either up or down.

Privacy Notice

The ANU has made a number of third party, online, databases available for students to use. Use of each online database is conditional on student end users first agreeing to the database licensor’s terms of service and/or privacy policy. Students should read these carefully.
In some cases student end users will be required to register an account with the database licensor and submit personal information, including their: first name; last name; ANU email address; and other information.

In cases where student end users are asked to submit ‘content’ to a database, such as an assignment or short answers, the database licensor may only use the student’s ‘content’ in accordance with the terms of service – including any (copyright) licence the student grants to the database licensor.

Any personal information or content a student submits may be stored by the licensor, potentially offshore, and will be used to process the database service in accordance with the licensors terms of service and/or privacy policy.

If any student chooses not to agree to the database licensor’s terms of service or privacy policy, the student will not be able to access and use the database. In these circumstances students should contact their lecturer to enquire about alternative arrangements that are available.
