About the ANU

The Australian National University (ANU) is Australia's highest ranked university, according to the QS World University Rankings® 2015/16.

The ANU campus is vibrant and welcoming, located on beautifully maintained parklands in the heart of Canberra, Australia's capital city. Many students live in university accommodation on or near campus, all within walking distance of the city centre.

As a smaller university ANU has a higher than average number of academic staff to students, ensuring smaller class sizes.

What can I study?

Guaranteed entry arrangements currently exist for the Bachelor of Actuarial Studies, Bachelor of Finance, Bachelor of Statistics and Bachelor of Economics.

For information about programs offered, please visit cbe.anu.edu.au

How to apply

All students should visit the SCETU office for information on how to apply to ANU. There are also a number of other ways you can apply to ANU:

- Directly to the university;
- Through an official ANU education agent.

To apply, please visit:
anu.edu.au/study/apply

For assistance in locating an education agent;

I chose ANU for its excellence in research and teaching. What makes ANU special is also the academic atmosphere, which can deeply influence every student here to study and explore more academically.

Excellent academics are also a great treasure of ANU. Outstanding professors, researchers and even Nobel-Prize winners, they are there to assist you, directly and indirectly. For students who want to pursue further study or research in the future, ANU is undoubtedly the best choice.
