ANU is a worthwhile university for an international student to study at. With its world’s top 20 ranking, ANU offers well-organized and flexible courses. For example, I can combine a range of degrees based on my interests. Being passionate and fascinated about anything related to business and applied mathematics, I commenced a Bachelor of Actuarial Studies and Bachelor of Commerce at ANU in 2014.

Canberra is a fantastic place to live and explore. Crime and political unrest are low compared to almost anywhere else in the world. I can always go for a bike ride, wander around Lake Burley Griffin or visit the nation’s key cultural institutions and galleries since they are all within easy reach.
