1. INTRODUCTION

Each year the Research School of Finance, Actuarial Studies and Statistics ("RSFAS") within the ANU College of Business and Economics ("the College") may award a scholarship known as the Research School of Finance, Actuarial Studies and Statistics National University of Singapore Travel Scholarship ("the Scholarship").

Up to four (4) scholarships will be awarded each year to the top commencing students in the Bachelor of Social Sciences (Honours) in Actuarial Studies and Economics degree.

2. BENEFITS

The Scholarship is valued at $10,000. The Award is payable in two instalments, to be paid following the Census Date of each semester in the scholars first year of study.

Please note, that the Scholarship does not cover any necessary admissions and deposit fees, the payment of reading and study materials, living expenses, accommodation or any other costs associated with studying.

3. ELIGIBILITY

The Scholarship shall be available to:

(a) Domestic or International students;

(b) Students granted admission into the Bachelor of Social Sciences (Honours) in Actuarial Studies and Economics degree via ANU.

4. APPLICATION

There is no separate application for this scholarship. All students admitted to the Bachelor of Social Sciences (Honours) in Actuarial Studies and Economics degree will be automatically considered for the Scholarship.

5. SELECTION

All students admitted to the Bachelor of Social Sciences (Honours) in Actuarial Studies and Economics degree will be considered for the scholarship by the Program Convener (or the Deputy Director) and the Director of the RSFAS. The scholarship will be awarded to the four students with the highest ATAR or ATAR equivalent.

The College reserves the right to make no awards in a given year, to vary the number of awards or to make an award/s at other times in exceptional circumstances as determined by the Dean of the College (or nominee). The College reserves the right to revise the Award from time to time.

6. DEFERRAL

The scholarship may not be deferred. Students will be assessed for the scholarship in the year that they will commence the program.
7. ONGOING ELIGIBILITY
A scholar will be required to be enrolled full-time in the Bachelor of Social Sciences (Honours) in Actuarial Studies and Economics degree

Scholarship holders are expected to maintain an average of 65% in order for the scholarship to be continued in the following semester of study. If a scholar does not meet the required average they will risk having their scholarship suspended or terminated.

Scholars that apply to transfer program will not be permitted to retain their scholarship as the scholarship is awarded specifically for the Bachelor of Social Sciences (Honours) in Actuarial Studies and Economics degree.

8. CONCURRENT HOLDING OF SCHOLARSHIPS
Scholars may hold another scholarship/award concurrently where both scholarship conditions of award allow.

9. SCHOLARSHIP CESSATION
The Scholarship shall cease at the conclusion of the period outlined in section 2, or on the date on which the scholar withdraws or ceases to attend the University other than for approved absences, whichever is the earlier. The scholarship shall be surrendered if the scholar fails to enrol as required in section 7, changes to part-time enrolment without permission, changes their program or course without permission.

The University may terminate the scholarship before this time if the scholar does not fulfil their obligations. This determination will be made by the Dean of the College (or nominee).

10. REPAYMENT OF FUNDS
Subject to the information available at the time, Dean of the College (or nominee) may request that the scholarship instalment for the semester in which the enrolment change or withdrawal occurs be refunded in part or in full.

11. PROVIDING FALSE INFORMATION
The awarding of your scholarship is based on the information that you provide to the University. Your scholarship may be withdrawn at any stage if you provide incorrect, false or misleading information or withhold relevant information. This includes circumstances where the false information is unrelated to the assessment in awarding the scholarship.

12. VARIATION TO CONDITIONS OF AWARD
In exceptional circumstances and on a case-by-case basis section 6 and/or 7 of these conditions of award may be varied by the College Dean on the recommendation of the Deputy Director of Education (CBE) and the Director of RSFAS.

13. TAXATION
It is the scholar’s responsibility to determine the taxation implications of the award, if any, which apply to his/her individual circumstances.

14. ACCOMMODATION
It is the scholar’s responsibility to obtain residential accommodation. Information on student accommodation at ANU and application forms are available from the University Accommodation Services. Information may be found on the Web at: http://www.anu.edu.au/students/services/accommodation.
15. PUBLICITY

It is anticipated that scholars may be requested to participate in publicity of the Award from time to time. This may include publicity in the region of residence or of schooling.

On occasions, the scholar may be contacted by the Research School of Finance, Actuarial Studies and Statistics and the College to participate in activities including, but not limited to, an interview, a photograph, and a formal Award presentation ceremony. The College may also request written responses from the scholar which can include, but is not limited to, a summary of basic profile information and descriptions of University experiences.

The University may publicise the Award by publishing the names of the scholars. Arrangements for such publicity will be made through the Research School of Finance, Actuarial Studies and Statistics administration staff or through the ANU College of Business and Economics Marketing and Development office.
