In the ANU College of Business and Economics we aim to develop our people to achieve their best.

This infographic includes links to further information on the development areas identified by academic staff in the 2015 CBE Academic Learning and Development Survey.

Public policy & outreach
- 68% of staff stated engagement with industry was a development need
  - Short course on Innovation and Industry engagement
  - Workshop on innovation and industry engagement
  - Media training: essentials
  - Media training: interviewing
  - Contact the Business Development office

Research
- ANU aims to increase its world class research
  - Writing a Literature Review
  - Understanding Research Fellowships
  - How Research is Measured and What it Means for Your Career
  - EndNote Introduction
  - Professional Grantsmanship
  - CBE Research skills workshops
  - Experimental Design & Analysis
  - Journal Article Writing & Abstracts
  - ANU Research Workshops
  - Contact the Research Services office

Education
- ANU aims to provide a great educational experience and be a leader in educational innovation
  - Supervising HDR Students
  - Education Technology
  - Flipping the Class Room
  - Flexible Learning
  - Public Speaking

Networking
- ANU aims to share our knowledge and engage with others
  - Innovation Networks
  - ANU Educational Research Network
  - Canberra Innovation Network
  - NECTAR - Early career research network

Follow links to:
- Register for a course or training
- Explore a website for training options
- Contact a training officer